WELCOME!

The Lehigh Valley Arts & Cultural Alliance (LVACA) is proud to present the second annual Disability Pride Lehigh Valley, in conjunction with our partners at Disability Pride Pennsylvania.

Disability Pride Lehigh Valley is a celebration of the disability community showcasing art, live music, special guests, resource tables, food, and games for all ages in Allentown Arts Park, in the heart of Downtown Allentown.

This year we are excited to partner with The Baum School of Art, Allentown Art Museum, Zoellner Arts Center, Da Vinci Science Center, and Lehigh University Art Galleries to celebrate the Lehigh Valley's diverse community.

From our origins as the Lehigh Valley Arts Council, accessibility to the arts for all residents and guests of the Lehigh Valley has been a cornerstone of LVACA's programming and our mission in service to the region. Disability Pride Lehigh Valley is one of the signature community programs of the LVACA, a unique arts and cultural advocacy organization devoted to seeing the arts flourish in our region for all of our community. LVACA is committed to ensuring that the arts are accessible to all, and that the diverse forms of artistic expression and cultural identities are an inescapable part of the quality of life in our region.

LVACA staff would like to thank the City of Allentown and all of our partners in bringing this event to life. A special thank you to Jacqui Schwartz, Susan Morelock, Deb Rabinsky, and Meg Mikovits for their commitment as LVACA staff members on this project, the members of the Disability Pride Pennsylvania and LVACA Programming Committee and the numbers of volunteers who have given of their time and talent in planning today's event.

We are grateful for your participation in today's amazing event and look forward to welcoming you to much of what LVACA offers. For more information on LVACA's programs, research, and advocacy, and for ways to become involved and support our efforts, please visit our website at www.lvaca.org.

DISABILITY PRIDE PENNSYLVANIA

112 N. 8th St., Ste. 208, Philadelphia, PA
www.disabilitypridepa.org

Disability Pride is a movement! More than just a means of self advocacy and a push for acceptance, Disability Pride is above all a celebration of inclusion and disabled people who are proud to be themselves! Our mission is to celebrate the pride that the disability community feels. It's a place for us to come together to celebrate the disability experience. What makes our programming different from others is that we plan accessible community events to bring disabled and non-disabled people together. Come out for the fun and pick up some great resources along the way! We believe that bringing people together in fun ways builds stronger communities; these communities have better conversations. Our programs provide spaces for advocacy, celebration, and some good trouble! We have created a growing momentum that is being recognized, promoted, and sought out by other organizations to understand disability inclusion. Let's make Pennsylvania Disability PROUD!
